The Mason LINE

by Cham Mason

The recent successful advent of Disney into the realm of television assures the future of educational TV. But it is amazing to us that after all the hours spent by teachers and parents trying to impart the fundamentals of true sportsmanship to our youngsters, such trips as professional wrestling and Roller Derby meet with the apparent popularity they do.

Faked or not, the disgusting spectacle of young women slugging one another is pretty sorry entertainment. Pro wrestling is stale stuff and we hope is on its way out, but last season we noticed the beginning of the same conduct in the ranks of pro football.

We would advise an immediate return to clean sports in the pro ranks or the golden egg will turn to brass, but quick.

—ML—

We heard of a newly wed couple who first realized their honeymoon was over when the young husband said, "Gosh, I wish you could make bread like my mother can," and said the young wife, "I wish you could make dough like my dad can."

—ML—

With so many people working so hard to raise funds for a swimming pool for our town, seems to us we should sell out Lane Field for the Padres-Portland ballgame Wednesday, May 4. The fund gets a nice cut from each ticket sold. L. G. night will feature our own Eddie Erault, who will pitch for San Diego. Let's go! At regular admission prices—it's a real bargain!

—ML—

Tom Warburton, recently appointed Grossmont High principal, is getting his Ph.D. at UCLA. Tom is no "Do as I say and not as I do" educator. (Bad news for the students—he's only making straight A's in every subject!)

—ML—

Incidentally, "Public Schools Week" is almost gone. If you haven't visited our schools, try to do so. The teachers and students will appreciate your visit.

Patterson, also of Lemon Grove, and has a son in the Air Force, stationed in Roswell, New Mexico.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Fred Scheneman, vice president; Mrs. E. I. Phares, recording secretary; Mrs. S. Sanchez, treasurer; Mrs. J. F. Gillespie, corresponding secretary.

Installation will be held on May 27 at the clubhouse.

'Best Seller' Written By Aunt of Local Woman

Mrs. Bruno J. Leonosio, 7802 Circle Drive, Lemon Grove, swells with pride whenever she thinks of her aunt, Mrs. Clara J. Snow (Clara Snow Babcock) of Riverside. Mrs. Snow (pen name) is receiving statewide acclaim for a historical novel she recently had published, titled "Over the Edge of the World."

In the dawn hours before Mrs. Snow's duties as an apartment manager in Riverside began, was the time of day spent on this adventure tale of the ancient Vikings. The book is soon to receive a full scale promotional campaign at Sears store (Riverside) and Mrs. Snow is already busily working on another historical book.

The aunt is Mrs. Leonosio's mother's sister. The Leonosios have resided in our community for over nine years. Leonosio is employed at the Naval Electronics lab. Mrs. Leonosio is a housewife. They have two children, Barbara and Linda, aged seven and nine respectively, who attend school in Monterey Heights.

Mrs. Snow was a visitor at the Leonosio's last weekend.

POT LUCK TO BE GOURMET'S FEATURE

FIRST SCHOOL SHOTS OF SALK VACCINE GIVEN IN GROVE

"Ouch, it hurts," says Virginia Livingston, 3809 Harris St., one of the 814 elementary school children inoculated Saturday in Lemon Grove.

Originally planned for three shots in a row, the immunization will be given in two shots, probably the second in May, with a booster shot in seven or eight months. Inoculations were restricted to students of the first and second grades.

Next shot is to be given May 7. In the above photo are a nurse and Dr. J. C. Smith, together with Virginia. The physicians, many of whom brought their own nurses, contributed their work as did helpers such as Mrs. Galey.

The immunization series is also available to others through the family physician. L. G. Camera Shop Photo

Committee on School District Organization To Oppose Loss of School Lands

The Committee on School District Organization, a group made up mostly of school trustees from all over the county, in a meeting at Oceanside earlier this month, unanimously adopted a resolution to oppose any further annexation of territory from the Lemon Grove school district to the San Diego Unified school district.

The action came after an attempt to annex two parcels by the San Diego school district.

One parcel, 16 acres in size, is owned by the State Division of Highways.

It is adjacent the new Walker Scott project east of the city owned Chollas Reservoir.

The other parcel, seven acres in size, owned by Tony Sonka, is on both sides of the freeway west of College. The committee argued that Lemon Grove's tax base would be reduced.

It is possible, local school trustees point out, to annex property to the city of San Diego and leave it in the Lemon Grove School District, as was the case with the Walker Scott acreage.

An Assembly bill, AB 2866, is up for consideration in Sacramento at present, Attorney Frank Armstrong, local school trustee pointed out, that would prevent such loss of lands. It would compel school districts to unify for the purpose of preventing whittling away of territory.

MRS. MCCARDELL DIES AT 57

Alice Rose McCardell, 57, 7535 North Ave., died last week in Lemon Grove. She is survived by her husband Charles, and three sons, Carl, of Spring Valley; Donald, Long Beach, and Gene, of Linwood.

Mrs. McCardell's mother and father, as well as herself, were native Californians.

Funeral will be Friday at the Chapel of the Chimes in Englewood, California.

Arrangements were handled locally by Conrad Mortuary.

FOUND WALLET IS STILL WITHOUT AN OWNER

Last month a wallet was found in Mayfair and it contained a wad of good, old, reliable money.

The story was run in the Review and a lady came in and inquired about it. Unfortunately, she asked a person who was not apprised of the fact that such a wallet had been found... so she told the lady that none had been turned in.

Larry Childress, Mayfair manager, asks the Review, and we are happy to do it, to announce that the wallet is still in the safe... still loaded with moola, and if the loser can identify it, the wallet will be released.

No, we don't know the color of the wallet... or the total of the contents.

THREE HIT-RUNS COST FIRE DISTRICT $750

Three hit-run incidents in which fire plugs were destroyed have been reported by the Lemon Grove Fire Department.

Commissioner Paul Tilton said that the plugs cost the taxpayers approximately $250 each and unless the drivers of the autos are located, the charges are added to the district's cost of operation.

Tilton requested that anyone observing such an accident should report it to either the sheriff's department or the fire department.

Fair One for Fair

Carolyn Parker

Carolyn Parker, Helix High student, is candidate for queen of El Cajon's annual community fair. The winner will be seller of the most fair tickets. The fair opens for a six day run, starting May 25. Miss Parker is being sponsored by the Klick-n-bangers, Lemon Grove Rod and Gun Club, the only local organization sponsoring a queen in that event. The club meets at Lee-Wood Trailer Court.

Ticket holders participate in the drawings for many valuable gifts, with a grand prize of a Honolulu vacation for two. Incidentally, the grand prize was won last year by a Lemon Grove resident.

Tickets may be purchased from club members, local merchants, or by a phone call to Jean Woody, HO 6-0434.

Merchants' Division Sets Up Plan Of Promotion

A program designed for attracting attention to Lemon Grove has been set up by the Merchant division of the Chamber of Commerce, it was announced this week by Dr. Robert Swenson, president.

The program includes a series of institutional advertisements through newspapers, radio, television, billboards and direct mail plus individual advertising of special sales and promotion together with prize giving events.

The cost will be approximately $500 per month, reported Abe Golberg, chairman of the merchants division.

A meeting will be held at the chamber meeting room in the Justice Court Monday, May 2 at 7:30 to implement the program. All Grove business persons will be asked to participate.

Three Grove Girls in 'Fairest' Race

Three Lemon Grove Girls have entered the Fairest of the Fair—Miss Con-Tour queen pageant preliminary contest to be held at Michael's May 5 under the sponsorship of the Lemon Grove Lions Club, according to Hap Van Nice, program chairman.

Sandra Jordan, 22 year old state college graduate of 2141 Ensenada St.; Connie Kratz, 17, of 2161 El Prado St. and Beverly Cunningham, 20, 4277 Altadena, are entrants.

The local winner will compete at Del Mar June 4 against 21 other candidates—all winners of preliminary contests in their respective communities. From this select group will be selected the queen.

Her first reign will be over the Camp Pendleton Rodeo, June 11-12, the Exposition and County Fair, June 24 through July 4, and throughout the year, all special events of the San Diego Convention and Tourist Bureau.

In August, she represents this county in the California State Fair's Maid of California competition at Sacramento.

The title currently is held by Jo Johnson, a Helix high senior.

The Department of Motor Vehicles in 1954 investigated 182,081 "irresponsible driver" cases.

Chamber Agenda Includes Police Discussion

Chamber of Commerce board meeting will be Tuesday, May 3 at the Justice Courtroom.

Rodeo committee reports and committee reports from the Merchant's Division will be heard.

Resolution regarding change of police committee will be discussed.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

When Ralph Cloyed, a good politician, and former Assemblyman from the 80th District which gerrymanders around Lemon Grove and La Mesa, died last week, it left a void in the hearts of many of us who admired and respected him.

I feel called upon to state categorically that Ralph Cloyed will not be replaced soon in stature, or in love among those who knew him well. He was honest, he was generous and he was sincere. His word was his bond and while he appeared casual in committing himself to some things, he never failed, as far as I know, to deliver on his commitments. He was a man to be trusted as well as a man to be dealt with because Cloyed was not to be swayed from the deals he had, nor from the beliefs he carried. He hated, I discovered early in our friendship, dishonesty in politics. It was as if he felt personally responsible for some of the actions of his colleagues.

Cloyed's death, in addition to creating a void, also becomes a Pandora's box. His shadow in the background of many county political moves kept at least two persons from contending for the 1956 supervisor's seat from this district.

I have volunteered to Dave Bird, our present supervisor, that this newspaper could not support him against Ralph Cloyed, should he run for the supervisor's post. Cloyed denied that he planned to run, and I believe that he did not so intend, but the rumor persisted and the pressure of insistence was strong. One politician offered him the gratuitous advice that the supervisor's post would be a sensible interim stop before he made another run for the state senate.

Others who felt the urge to run, subdued their desire with the knowledge that only a handful of votes would go to another candidate should Cloyed and Bird lock horns in supervisorial battle. That consideration is no longer a deterrent. Already comes rumbles of entries in the race next year.

A Lemon Grove insurance man, John Dail, who is big and gangling like Jimmy Roosevelt, encouraged by his brother's recent election as mayor of San Diego is reputed to have his eye on the state senate seat with a congressional berth as his ultimate goal. It was he whom I heard urge Cloyed to run as supervisor. As late as Tuesday Dail had his own ball rolling on the basis of giving county government back to the people. His brother, Mayor Charles Dail, will be giving city government back to the residents of San Diego.

As you can see, Pandora's box may have contained many interesting things, and Ralph Cloyed, a good politician, helped keep the lid on.

COUNTY WOMEN'S CLUB TO HONOR OUTGOING PRESIDENT

Monday, May 9 all county women's clubs will hold a May Festival at the clubhouse starting at 10 a.m. The theme this year will be "Putting on Ritz with Ritz" in honor of Mrs. John Ritz, outgoing county president. This will be a sack luncheon. Coffee will be served.

HERB LOWE IN ACCIDENT

Herb Lowe, proprietor of Lowe's Toggery, 3321 Imperial Ave., suffered an unusual accident Saturday.

He was putting together a store display at his home at 7121 San Miguel and a glass globe broke, cutting the top of his foot, requiring eight stitches.

He is hobbling about, but it will be several days before surgeons X-ray the injury to decide whether or not tendons are cut.

County Road Department Retires Another

Rom Hayhurst, 67, 3288 New Jersey, Lemon Grove, retired from the San Diego County Road Department last week as his superiors and fellow workers paid homage to him for 13 years of association. The ceremonies were handled by R. L. Davis, assistant road commissioner, who commended Hayhurst for his "superior effort."

"We need more men like Hayhurst to form a pathway for younger men to follow," Davis said.

His fellow employees presented him with a Benrus wrist watch and the office prepared a plaque with a cartoon attached, showing Hayhurst holding up a bridge, with road officials Joe Mack, Ed Singer and George Rice asleep in the shade. Hayhurst was foreman on many San Diego county bridges.

Hayhurst will travel with his wife, covering parts of Mexico and the south, and will winter in Florida. They will maintain their home in Lemon Grove.

THE SHOW'S THE THING!

Good special effects, beautiful scenery, fine acting with an excellent supporting cast is the succinct way to sum up "Green Fire" which opens this Wednesday, April 27, at the Grove Theatre. "Green Fire" was partially filmed on location in South America, and stars Stewart Granger, Grace Kelly and Paul Douglas. The movie is an adventure film about a search for a lost emerald mine in Colombia. It is said that "Green Fire" contains everything that the movies have been doing badly for 50 years, BUT this time is done very well. The companion feature is "Tarzan, the Ape Man." The main pic for the matinee this Saturday is "Naked Spur" starring Jimmy Stewart.

Based on the Oscar Hammerstein Broadway stage hit of 11 years ago, "Carmen Jones," which opens this Sunday at the Grove Theatre, is the screen's very first attempt to put before the viewing public the pop version of a famous opera. It is a lively, entertaining musical drama that opens with a parachute factory in the South as a setting instead of a cigarette factory in Spain, like the original opera.

The movie is rich with lusty singing, full of suspense and comedy and is done very artistically. Besides being in Cinemascope and color the songs are clear and enjoyed by all concerned. Although the pic is recommended for adults moreso than children, it is family entertainment. "Carmen Jones" is an all-Negro movie that stars Harry Belafonte, Dorothy Dandridge, Pearl Bailey and Joe Adams. Dorothy gives us a fine performance portraying a passionate, selfish, childish young woman. Harry reminds us of a Don Jose and Joe is fine as the conceited, boisterous prizefighter. All the songs have zest with the cafe scenes cutting loose with some of the hottest jive ever to be filmed on widescreen. The co-feature pic stars Johnny Weissmuller and is titled "Jungle Man Eaters."

Youngsters Meet Neighboring Nationals

Ricardo Pedrosa, 15 years old, from the Alba Roja school in Tijuana, greets Valera Bauman, 11 years old, 2752 Dennis Lane, as the two nations meet as a part of Pan-American program held last week at the Grove Elementary School. L. G. Camera Shop Photo

Pan-American Day recently was realistically observed in Lemon Grove Schools when 40 fourth grade students from schools in Tijuana, Mexico, journeyed north of the border to spend a day in classrooms here. Accompanied by two Tijuana teachers and an interpreter, Miss Rebecca Gibbons, the all girl class, in four groups, spent the school day in the elementary schools of Lemon Grove, observing and participating in reading and arithmetic classes.

The convenient location permitted this exchange of girls from another country and helped in the building of better, friendlier international relations. Following lunches at the various schools, where the visitors ate with district pupils, the Mexican children joined their northern neighbors at baseball and other playground games. The play period proved an excellent way for the children to get acquainted with each other and with each other's customs.

In the afternoon they were guests at a special assembly program in the junior high auditorium, along with fourth, fifth, and sixth graders from the Golden Avenue School. The junior high orchestra, under the direction of Ethel Boucher, eighth grade concert mistress, played several numbers, along with three instrumental ensembles from the junior high. Miss Pauline McCurdy's fourth graders from Monterey Heights presented authentic American dances on the stage, and then the visitors presented some authentic Mexican dances to the Lemon Grove group.

Earlier this term in the fall fourth grade students from Lemon Grove had made a similar visit to Mexico. This practice has been in effect for some time here, and the idea has been given recognition by several educational publications.

Telephones Available in Decorator Colors

Employees in the La Mesa Telephone office are enthusiastic about the colored instruments we now have on display. Mrs. Freda Harper, Teller, shows Mrs. Ada Herrin, Public Office Representative, the color of the beige instrument she recently had installed in her home in Lake Murray Manor. These telephones surely add to the beauty of your home, and it is suggested that they be installed as extensions or to replace the black instruments you may now have. There is a color to blend with every decor and most of these telephones are readily available.

The telephone call that made Joanie's heart jump

Joan might be the girl next door. At 14, she's cute as anything. And you should have seen the look on her face the night Joe, one of the fellows in her class, called to invite her to the next school dance. Outwardly, Joanie seemed calm. But when her Dad nodded "yes" to her, she was almost speechless. After all—a first date happens but once. And when you stop to think of it, isn't it true that telephone calls herald many a big moment in our lives—reunions, weddings, births? Yet consider how little your telephone actually costs for all the ways it serves you. Isn't it one of today's best buys? Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

An up-to-date telephone arrangement for your home

Folks who go in for modern living are finding how handy it is to have a telephone in each of the rooms they use a lot. Just think how much you'd enjoy a telephone in the kitchen where you can call or answer without leaving your work. Of course, one in the living room is practically a must. And in the bedroom a telephone adds comfort, security. With up-to-date telephone arrangements, you save time. You save steps. You have privacy for your calls. And you can enjoy the convenience of added telephones for only a little more than you pay now. Why not call us and talk it over soon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Editor:

Your front page pictorial report of the plans for my recall as Irrigation District director from Lemon Grove is typical of the gamut that must be run by those dedicating themselves to public service.

The so-called startling news, that was published in your paper during February and accompanied by photostats of deeds that purport to show that a vast fortune was made on the transaction by me, was thoroughly investigated by the Grand Jury of 1953 and their findings after extensive impartial study resulted in the dropping of any allegation of malfeasance by me as a director of the Irrigation District.

Now this same "ghost" is being revived, the theme of which is "elected officials make huge fortunes at the expense of the taxpayer" and it appeals to many unthinking people.

If the same amount of concerted effort, that is used personally against people doing public service as directors, trustees, and commissioners, were directed constructively assist the agency involved, we in Lemon Grove would go a long way toward bringing about a unity in our community that we so badly need.

Harry Griffen

Vice President and Director
La Mesa Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation
District.

Dear Editor:

At the last meeting of our board of directors, it was voted unanimously that a letter of appreciation be sent to the Lemon Grove Review in acknowledgment of your excellent cooperation during our 1955 Heart Fund Drive.

To cite just one example, the Lemon Grove Review's release of our publicity on the new Heart Center in the Sharp Memorial Hospital was an important service in acquainting residents of your area with this newest facet of community service maintained by the Heart Association.

To date, the 1955 Heart Fund is now less than 2% from its original goal of $90,000! Of this sum, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley raised $584.04 out of an original goal of $900.00.

Again, on behalf of myself and of the entire membership of the San Diego County Heart Association, our deep gratitude for your generous and substantial interest in our objectives.

Very truly,
Judge Ronald Abernathy,
President, San Diego
County Heart Association

LOCAL LUMBER
ACCLAIM IN STATE MAGAZINE

The Lemon Grove Lumber Company, which was recently named as one of 17 finalists in the U. S. on handling and publicizing national brands in the building materials field in the annual Brand-name Retailer of the Year contest came up this month for additional honors.

The firm was featured in the California Lumber Merchant, a semi-monthly trade magazine which covers the California lumber industry. The magazine published a two page article complete with seven pictures in which was shown how the lumber firm had developed under the guidance of Stephen Westover, veteran lumber man and manager of the firm.

The article shows how Westover and his associates in the firm have catered to the small purchaser as well as the large, featured only grade marked lumber, and how they resisted traffic in low grade products.

The lumber firm is located on North Street.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

Last week saw a good week for Helix High School, athletically speaking. On Tuesday the Highland "9" upset the Spartans of Chula Vista by the score of 6-4. In that game Helix scored three runs in the first inning and one run in the fourth, sixth and eighth innings. The game was on the Chula Vista diamond and that game left Helix and C.V. tied in second spot behind Grossmont with the won-lost mark of 3-2. Lynn Aase, lefty from Helix, went the route giving up eight hits, struck out four and gave up nine walks. Third baseman Ernie Miller, Helix, whacked out two singles in four attempts at the plate. The winning pitcher was Aase with Rudzinski doing the catching. The losing pitcher was Gurule.

On the tennis scene La Jolla edged Helix 5-2.

Although in the first baseball encounter with Grossmont the varsity team from Helix dropped the game, what many people don't know is that the Helix JV squad defeated the Grossmont JV team, 7-4.

Last Friday saw Lynn Aase relieve Bill Westphal in the seventh inning and go on to lead the Helix varsity baseball squad past Mar Vista, 5-4. Rudy Rudzinski (Helix catcher) hit a timely triple with three men on and then later scored himself on a sacrifice fly.

"EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT"
SUNDAY LESSON TOPIC
"Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty." This verse from Job (5:17) is the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

The necessity of overcoming sin in order to escape its penalties is stressed by Christ Jesus in John's Gospel (5:14). After healing the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda, "Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

RONNIE MULDEN WINS SAFETY AWARD

Ronnie Mulden, 15 year old Helix High tenth grader, was judged winner of the Child Safety Week slogan contest last week. His slogan "Children at Play, Should Stay That Way," won for himself a $25 U. S. Savings Bond. The bond, offered by the La Mesa Community Hospital, will be presented to him during the school award assembly in two weeks. Making the presentation will be John Gorbey, manager of the La Mesa Hospital.

Judges for the contest were: Dr. Ralph Mullenix, of the County Medical Society, and Edgar K. Brown, executive director of the Community Welfare Council.

The contest was originally open to senior students only, but was finally opened to all English students of both Helix and Grossmont High Schools.

Ronnie and his English teacher, George Bascom, were guests on Harold Keene's "Prominent Teen-Agers in the News," Saturday night.

Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mulden, of 8077 Palm Ave., Lemon Grove.

LA MESA ART GROUP HAS SHOWING
The La Mesa Foothills Art Association held their "Every Member" Show at the La Mesa Youth Center Sunday.

Between 75 and 100 members of the group displayed some very fine paintings, which were viewed by several hundred people.

Each year it is the custom of the artists to donate their paintings to the various hospitals in the San Diego area. This year they will donate to the new Grossmont Hospital. Not only the paintings, but the frames as well will go in to every room of the hospital.

'Platter Parade'

Ratner Recommends . . . the following two platters for your ever-growing collection of good music. "Malaguena" by Stan "the man" Kenton and "Opus One" by the ever-popular Mills Brothers.

Record Poll . . . Here are this week's top five pop tunes as compiled by Ratner Electric, Eighth and Broadway in downtown San Diego. (1) "Ballad of Davy Crockett" by "Tennessee" Ernie Ford; (2) "Melody of Love" by the Four Aces; (3) "Tweddee Dee" by her nibbs — Miss Georgia Gibbs; (4) "Sincerely," McGuire Sisters; (5) "Unchained Melody," Les Baxter. Leading classic: "Mr. Straus Comes to Boston" by the Boston Pops Orchestra. Top jazz record: "Modern Jazz Quartet" featuring Milt Jackson on the Prestige label.

Shows on EP . . . The following is a list of just some of the EP (extended play) records Ratner's have from famous shows: "Davy Crockett — Indian Fighter: Goes to Congress; at the Alamo"; "Young at Heart" by Doris Day and Frank Sinatra; "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" sung by Jane Powell and Howard Keel; "So This is Paris" featuring Tony Curtis; Bing Crosby in "The Country Girl"; "The Pajama Game" featuring Patti Page; Walt Disney's "The Vanishing Prairie"; Mickey Spillane's interpretation (and the only good one) of "Mike Hammer"; "The Merry Widow" with Fernando Lamas; "Lili" starring Leslie Caron and Mel Ferrer; Judy Garland in "A Star is Born"; Another Walt Disney production titled "Peter Pan"; and the two clown princes, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis in "Living it Up."

Thanks Loads . . . History-breaking business was done at the Basin Street Club in New York recently when Benny Goodman played there. Opening night, the club was forced to stop taking reservations at 7:30. Following this a customer called to cancel a reservation. Expecting the usual aggrieved manner customary for such occurrences, the customer was startled to hear, "Oh, that's fine, excellent; Thank you very much, sir!"

Sisters Meet in Grove After 40 Years

Special occasions bring special joy, and that is the case in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tarditi, 6820 Central Ave., Lemon Grove. For you see, Mrs. Tarditi now has her sister staying with her. Ordinarily there would be nothing unusual about that, except in this case the two women haven't seen each other since Mrs. Tarditi left England, over 40 years ago.

Last Thursday night Mrs. Tarditi took a train to L. A. to meet her sister, Mrs. Alice Jago, who was arriving in Los Angeles by train from Vancouver, Canada. After meeting, the two sisters took another train from L. A. to San Diego.

Paul Tarditi is employed by Convar and the misses is a housewife, complete with three children and 12 grandchildren. Mrs. Tarditi has a son in Monterey Heights, William, and a son in New Jersey, whom she hasn't seen for two years, and a daughter in Georgia, who she hasn't seen for six years.

Mrs. Jago, whose husband died in January, has three daughters, two sons and 16 grandchildren, all living around the Vancouver area in Canada.

It is generally hoped by the Tarditis that Mrs. Jago will spend a few months in Lemon Grove. And speaking of Lemon Grove, Mrs. Tarditi feels that "Lemon Grove is a wonderful town—one of the best."
